

Voter Information Resources Online

1. League of Women Voters U.S.A. www.lwv.org

Press releases; Congressional activities; how the League takes action; action priorities (fighting voter suppression, money in politics, redistricting, health care reform, immigration, the environment, and much more); history of LWV and suffragettes; national League leadership.

2. League of Women Voters California www.lwvc.org

Latest news; legislation to keep an eye on; California and national key issues and positions (“our work”); history of the California League, events, “Vote with the League” on ballot propositions.

3. League of Women Voters Bay Area www.lwvbayarea.org

Inter-League organization of 9 Bay Area counties with 20 local Leagues. LWV Bay Area addresses regional issues such as transportation, air and water quality, coordination of government agencies. Sign up for free bimonthly newsletter at bayareamonitor.org/subscribe/

4. League of Women Voters Alameda www.lwvalameda.org

All about us: who we are and what we do; calendar of events; voter information; positions and programs; contacts, The Voter and e-blasts (click on “more”); join, renew and donate online.

5. California Secretary of State www.sos.ca.gov

California Voters’ Choice Act; elections and voter information; how to vote in California; campaign finance and lobby activities; status of ballot measures (initiatives and referendums) and more.

6. Alameda County Registrar of Voters www.acgov.org/rov/

Official election site of Alameda County; how, where and when to vote; register on-line and update registration; campaign finance in Alameda County; elected officials; lists of candidates.

7. City of Alameda www.alamedaca.gov

Important source of information about Mayor, City Council, Boards and Commissions; announcements of City Council meetings and agendas; minutes and videos of meetings (watch at home!); City departments and key staff contacts; special meetings, hearings, City events.

8. Voter’s Edge California www.votersedge.org/ca

Get the facts on candidates and issues before you vote! Joint project of LWVC and MapLight. Track donations and expenditures of candidates and ballot measures in California (and other states). Enter your zip code to see your personal ballot.